Les Silleries
8 Bed Property For Sale in Grouville

Description

Set in excess of 22.25 vergees of beautifully landscaped gardens and lawns on the island of Jersey in the English Channel Islands, this fine, perfectly proportioned family home was built in 1993. It is a clever combination of a classic Palladian design with Doric columns and the use of local pink Jersey granite. Approached by a long tree lined driveway from a quiet country lane, this family home sits in an elevated position affording panoramic views towards the south east coast, the town of St Helier and the hills and valleys inland. This prestigious residence has been built to a very high and exacting standard by the current owners and provides excellent proportioned family, guest and staff accommodation, as well as extensive garaging and…
