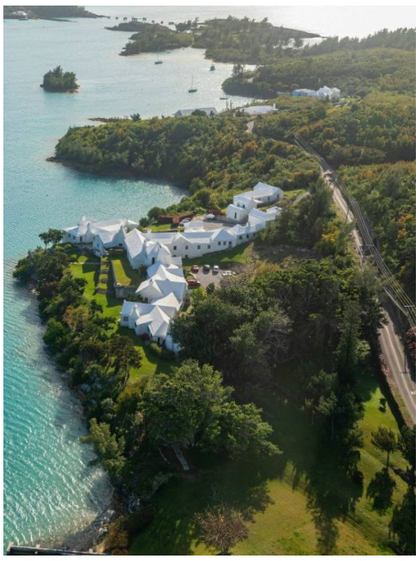
Bierman Astor Estate
13 Bed For Sale in St. Georges



Description

Mysterious and striking, this remarkable estate spans over 7 acres of picturesque coastal land and was once the private retreat of Vincent Astor and his wife Helen - offering a rare opportunity to own a slice of Bermuda's storied past. Designed and constructed in 1933 by Bermudian architects and craftsmen, the estate, then known as 'Ferry Reach', became an icon of glamour and sophistication. In the 1970s, under company ownership it was reimagined by its new owner Herbie Bierman, whose inventive and often offbeat ideas added new charm to this historic gem. Today, the property is offered with six subdivided residential (Res 1) lots, eleven recently upgraded apartments, a charming 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom cottage, and over 1,700 feet of boatable…
