The Glebe House
7 Bed House For Sale in Hamilton Parish

Description

The Glebe House is a historic mansion nestled on the peak of Glebe Hill in Tucker’s Town, once known as “Romay House” and the former residence of Lord Martonmere, Governor of Bermuda. Built in the 1960's, this magnificent home commands panoramic water views along the South Shore, Castle Harbour, Harrington Sound, North shore and a superb vantage of Mid Ocean golf course. A large covered entryway leads into a formal foyer with marble floors. A prominent marble and Cyprus stairway leads down to a gracious two-story drawing room with an elegant fireplace, wet bar and powder room. To the West, past a working elevator, is a stately wood paneled library with cozy fireplace and glass doors opening onto an expansive private patio,…
