

The Rectory

4 Bed Property For Sale in Castel

Description

A superb 19th century detached home in an elevated position with beautiful rural views towards the West coast. This grand 4 bedroom, 3 story rectory was built in the 1800’s and exudes historical charm and craftsmanship. The Rectory’s imposing façade is adorned with four striking granite chimney stacks, show casing the beauty of the local pink granite. Quoins accentuate each corner, while the windows are framed by dressed and chamfered surrounds, reflecting the artistry of local stone mason Daniel De Putron whose craftsmanship also graces the neighbouring St Matthew’s Church. Ample parking complements this family home making it as practical as it is grand and although in need of some modernisation, this property is an opportunity...
