

Holingues

3 Bed Property For Sale in St. Sampson's

Description

Cranfords are pleased to offer Holingues to the local market. This property is situated just minuets away from the bridge and a stone throw away from Delancey park, this property has a good sized side garden and two allocated parking places. Over the years this property has been modified and developed by the current owners including a new extension to the side of the property to offer generous living space and also opens up the opportunity of making the dining room into a fourth bedroom if one wanted to do so. On the first floor there are two bedrooms, one of which being a good sized double and a shower room as you go upstairs to the top floor there are some beautiful rooftop and island views from the office space and bathroom which also leads...
