

The Rectory

7 Bed Property For Sale in St. Andrew's

Description

An elegant and substantial period home offering beautifully proportioned accommodation, rich in character and natural light. Set within private, mature surroundings, it combines timeless architectural charm with the flexibility for modern family living, presenting a rare opportunity to acquire a distinguished piece of history. The Rectory features high ceilings and traditional detailing throughout, creating a strong sense of heritage. While well maintained, the property offers excellent scope for sympathetic modernisation, allowing a new owner to enhance and personalise the space to contemporary standards.
