

Fermain House

4 Bed Property For Sale in St. Peter Port

Description

Fermain House is a stunning New England style home which was traditionally built with wooden cladding and completed in 2012. Immaculately presented, this property offers a wonderful master bedroom suite with three further bedrooms suites, most of which have rural, distant sea and island views, one is accessed by a separate external staircase which would suit a semi-independent relative, teenager or fantastic guest accommodation. There is a beautiful fitted kitchen/dining/family room with an adjacent study both of which open onto the private south facing patio and garden. Located in a highly desirable residential area on the outskirts of St Peter Port yet just walking distance to the south coast cliff paths and beaches.
