

L'Hivernage House

Property For Sale in Sark

Description

L’Hivernage House offers a rare opportunity to refurbish and enhance a substantial open market home in Sark. With its generous proportions, defined setting and long-term lease potential, the property is ideally suited to purchasers seeking a project with significant scope for improvement, to add value and create a bespoke island residence. A traditional two-storey open market rendered block house extending to approximately 342m2. The property provides an established layout but is now in need of refurbishment and modernisation, offering an excellent opportunity to create a comfortable and spacious family home tailored to individual requirements. The house benefits from surrounding garden areas and a degree of separation from neighbouring buildings,...
