5 Bed Property For Sale in St. Saviour's

Description

It is becoming increasingly rare to find many Local Market homes that nestle in their own land and enjoy unspoilt views across open countryside. Not only does this beautiful listed farmhouse provide this and more, it does so within an estate of approximately 46 vergées (just over 19 acres) and enjoys a unique degree of privacy as a result. Modernised and extended over time, it offers flexible accommodation either as one large house or a property with a wing, whilst there is undoubted scope to develop the property further, subject to the necessary permissions. It also offers a heated swimming pool, triple garage and a number of outbuildings around its central courtyard. A once in a lifetime opportunity to acquire and develop a substantial and...
