

2 Les Marroniers, Chestnut Farm, St Helier

3 Bed Property For Sale in St. Helier

Description

Steeped in Jersey history, Les Marroniers forms part of the remarkable Chestnut Farm, an historic farmstead whose origins can be traced back to circa 1400.No. 2 occupies the eastern wing of the handsome 17th/18th-century farmhouse range and is a fine example of traditional Jersey granite architecture, with historic features carefully preserved through the generations. The wider farmstead is particularly notable for its unique triple-arched granite gateway, bearing a 1698 datestone, together with a rare medieval building, bakehouse and ash house. Sensitively restored in the 1990s, the development combines centuries of local history with the comforts of modern residential living.Situated on the outskirts of St Helier, yet within easy reach of...
