6 Bed Property For Sale in St. Brelade

Description

This desirable period investment property comprises three well-maintained 2-bedroom apartments which all benefit from views over the bay. This impressive seaside Grade 4 listed house (BR0344) retains many original decorative features including the low granite frontage wall with ornate pedestrian gates, and very finely detailed decorative railings forming the first-floor balcony. The apartments are each rented on annual leases and more information can be provided on application. This impressive property is situated in one of island's most desirable residential areas, with the beach on your doorstep and in the vibrant village of St Aubin with an array of good restaurants, bars & shops close by and together with excellent frequent bus routes.
