Property To Let in St. Helier

Description

Situated in a prime location, in the busy hub of Hill Street, close to solicitors' offices, estate agents and only a stones throw from the Royal Court. The first floor provides two separate areas of offices with the front office being south east facing and flooded with natural light with the rear offices providing private meeting rooms and potential boardroom facilities. The property further benefits from additional space on the 2nd floor which could be used for either overflow office space or a breakout area and storage.
