3 Bed Property For Sale in St. Helier

Description

A fantastic investment and development opportunity with a mix of residential and commercial units offering great potential. The two commercial units could provide a great opportunity for businesses to thrive in a town center location, surrounded by other independent businesses. Meanwhile, the three 1-bedroom apartments offer great living space but are in need of modernisation but can serve as cozy homes for individuals or couples looking for a convenient and comfortable living space. And the surprise garden to the rear is definitely a delightful addition! It could serve as a peaceful retreat for the residents, offering a green space where they can relax, enjoy some fresh air, or even have small gatherings. Considering the great town center...
