La Chasserie Blanche
5 Bed Property For Sale in St. Lawrence

Description

With access via a long private drive, well away from the main road, this secluded home in a panoramic country setting was built as a granite farmhouse in the 1600s and retains original features such as chamfered window surrounds, oak beams and date stones. Having been in the same family for sixty years, it is now ready for modernisation which could suit two generations or offer one very extensive property with all amenities. The farmhouse is surrounded by sweeping lawns to the south, a field to the north and valley to the east, all extending to 12 vergees. The area is ideal for walks through the neighbouring Fern Valley, whilst St Helier, schools and shops are a short drive away. The Grade 4 listed house has been extended over the years to…
