

1 Augres Farm

4 Bed Property For Sale in Trinity

Description

Part of an historic farm, now converted into homes around a pleasing courtyard, this delightful five-bedroom Grade 2 listed house dates back to the 1400s with 1700s extension, and retains a wealth of original granite features that are rare today. The house has enjoyed a sensitive renovation that now combines modern living with all its historical features. The south facing façade is a delight to behold with its double voussoirs arch around the main entrance and two rare, inscribed granite pillars that are only otherwise found at Hamptonne Living Museum in St Lawrence, and beautiful chamfered stones surrounding each window. There are two wonderful reception rooms with large granite fireplaces with inset stoves, beamed ceilings and granite...
