

Haute Falaise

4 Bed Property For Sale in St. Lawrence

Description

Located up Mont Felard, where it commands elevated views towards Elizabeth Castle, this large period property is very suited to a family, especially with older children. Renovated and extended by the longstanding owners, it comprises large reception rooms and four-bedroom suites, two of which have the benefit of their own sitting room, making it perfect for older children or extended family. In addition to this there is also an integral one-bedroom flat. The house is well suited for flexible living and entertaining and provides space for all the family, yet still enjoys the cosiness of sitting by the fireside. Surrounding the house is a large terrace and plenty of parking and it comes with woodland that runs below the property on three sides,...
