

Maison Haut De La Rue

9 Bed Property For Sale in St. Ouen

Description

The property is situated in the rural parish of St Ouen and is an ideal development opportunity, subject to the usual planning consent. This appealing property provides potential and various options are available including creating a two, three or even four generation dwelling or to a family with teenagers wanting extra space. Alternatively, some units could be let to provide an income, or it could be redeveloped into a single residence. The property sits in a very large plot and can be approached via two separate driveways. Currently split into four cottages, the properties would benefit from refurbishment and offers tremendous opportunity to create a large family home with detached triple garage block, together with ample parking, two separate...
