

Lynwood Cottage

2 Bed Property For Sale in St. Helier

Description

A rare opportunity to acquire a detached town cottage tucked away in a quiet residential street, offering an unusually peaceful setting so close to the heart of town. Built in 2001 and presented in walk-in condition, this charming home offers two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, making it a comfortable and practical alternative to apartment living. The property benefits from a secure, fully enclosed area with an electric roller door, providing either off-street parking for one vehicle or an attractive private patio garden. With numerous shops, restaurants and cafés virtually on the doorstep, and the ability to walk to work, the location combines convenience with a sense of seclusion that is hard to find. Offered with no forward chain.
