Description

Regus Suites Available Immediately Short or Long Term Leases The Jersey Centre is situated in the prosperous capital of St Helier at the entrance to the prestigious new Liberty Wharf retail development which links the old town and the waterfront. It has a decked area with fantastic harbour views, providing an excellent location for events. Neighbouring businesses include leading names from the financial sector. Jersey is the largest of the Channel Islands, a proudly independent state less than 14 miles from France and under an hour from London, with frequent flights to all major European business centres. Although tourism, electronic commerce and agriculture all make an important contribution, the economy is dominated by financial services....
