

50A Harrington Sound Road

House For Sale in Hamilton Parish

Description

From the moment we entered Georgetown -- a recently constructed modernist house in the heart of Walsingham district of Hamilton Parish -- we knew we were experiencing something special. One simply feels better in a well designed home, and this is clearly accomplished by Georgetown's Bermuda architect, along with Anders Lasater, the award-winning California architect responsible for the property's stunning landscaped entrance. Currently leased through 2024 making it suitable for investment purchasers, the auspicious 1.3-acre home provides inspiring overland views to Castle Harbour and Harrington Sound plus shared water access to Castle Harbour with a short walk from the property. To the west of the main house, within Georgetown's grounds, lies...
