

40 Knapton Hill

House For Sale in Smith's

Description

With captivating aquamarine views of the Atlantic Ocean and Harrington Sound, Knapton House and its charming guest cottage known as Knapton Knoll enjoy a spectacular 3.58-acre private estate setting, conveniently located within 10-20 minutes of the clubs of Tucker's Town, L.F. Wade International Airport, and the City of Hamilton. As a Grade 3-listed residence for architectural significance, this is a shining example of Bermuda vernacular design with an intriguing history. The original farmhouse was constructed in the late 17th century by John Knapton, one of Bermuda's early silversmiths; though the home took its current form by 1929 when restored by an American heiress. In the 1940s, Knapton House was purchased by Murtoogh D. Guinness, a member...
