

3 St. David's Road

House For Sale in St. Georges

Description

'Jewel in the East' and 'One of the Grand Dames of Bermudian architecture' is how the Bermudian Magazine described Stentaway, the 275-years-young homestead set on two private acres on St. George's Harbour, along the main road to St. David's. The property won the magazine's Annual Bermuda Building Design Award and the Bermuda National Trust Award for its elegant simplicity in 1999. Now, nearly 25 years on, the acuity and integrity of that renovation is more apparent than ever. Yes, Stentaway honours the very best of Bermudian design tradition, yet it also continues to present as a modern, light-filled, minimalist haven. This is a home as comfortable with furnishings by Eames, Corbusier and Kjaerholm as it is with fine Bermuda antiques. Displaying...
