

A third of an acre on Front and Reid Streets Walker Arcade & Calypso Commercial For Sale in City Of Hamilton

Description

Coldwell Banker is pleased to announce that they have received instructions to sell two of the city's most recognized commercial properties, The Walker Arcade and The Calypso Building. The two properties comprise over 36,000 square feet and sit on just over a third of an acre. The City of Hamilton was given its name by the House of Assembly in 1790 and the lots which the Walker Arcade property was built on were purchased in the early 1800's. The property was initially designed to accommodate the operational requirements of B.W. Walker & Co, trading as importers and exporters. As the city grew during the next 100 years, the design and use of commercial property evolved to accommodate the changing times and in 1932 the owners invested significant...
