

Red Barracks

2 Bed Vacation Rental To Let in St. Georges

Description

We are privileged to offer this historic building known as Red Barracks, rightly named, as the property once housed a barracks of Red Coats in the 18th century under the command of King George II. Red Barracks now takes its place as part of a family estate in St. Georges standing among lovely gardens, which include a vegetable garden, rose garden and a small farm yard of chickens and geese. Recently a new chinese garden and spectacular gate has been added. Red Barracks itself has its own private gardens which have a tranquil Asian feel. Entering through the welcoming arms veranda in to the spacious kitchen and dining area your eyes are immediately drawn upwards to the exposed old cedar rafters. which are a complete contrast to the modern stainless...
