

BUD HOUSE

1 Bed Vacation Rental To Let in Smith's

Description

It was once said Bermuda was known as “The Easter Isle” for a million good reasons — that was the estimated size of the island’s annual crop of lilies when the industry was at its peak in the 1930’s – 1950’s. The Bud House property was at the center of this industry led by the present owners’ ancestors and the actual Bud House was originally one of the barns where the lily bulbs were packed for export. Now for guests to enjoy as an inviting and modern one-bedroom apartment with far reaching views over Harrington Sound. Maybe you can still smell the lingering perfume of lilies? Recently renovated to the highest standard, the accommodation consists of a spacious sitting room and open plan kitchen...
