Emily's Bay Lane Lot A
Land For Sale in St. Georges

Description

Welcome to Emily’s Bay Road Lot A, a rare opportunity to build your dream home with ocean views. Measuring approximately 0.143 acres, the property is zoned Residential 2/Woodland and benefits from approved building plans and an existing building permit. Considerable site preparation has already been completed: overgrown invasive trees have been cleared, endemic trees planted, the foundation excavated, the property completely fenced for safety, and the boundaries restaked. The approved plans showcase a thoughtfully designed two-storey home featuring two bedrooms, one main bathroom, and a powder room. The upstairs primary bedroom includes a private ensuite and a balcony. Designed around an inviting open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area…
