

Inwood House 4 Bed House For Sale in Paget

Description

A unique opportunity to own a fabulous estate in central Paget. The house was built in the 1700's and sits on four acres of completely private and secluded property. There is also a two bedroom carriage house for extra guests or income. The house and cottage are full of Bermuda charm with beautiful cedar beamed ceilings and large raised fireplaces and panelled walls. This is a truly stunning property. The house was built by Col. Francis Jones, Searcher of the Bermuda Company, in 1700. Bermuda cedar was used exclusively in the framework and the interior of the house. The wood floors and some window frames have been replaced with pine but the doors, the surrounds of the six fireplaces, the beams in the entrance and living room, the stairwell...
