

Rocheterre

5 Bed House For Sale in Paget

Description

When buying a home is buying a piece of Bermudian architectural heritage. Proudly overlooking Hamilton Harbour, with a landscape that has evolved for more than a century, one thing has remained a constant: Rocheterre. Built in 1909 by Frederick Hastings Hamilton, U.S. Ambassador to Switzerland, this magnificent Georgian residence is a timeless example of gracious colonial architecture. Set across 1.44 acres in Paget, the five-bedroom home encompasses approximately 5,700 sq. ft. of beautifully proportioned living space, combining historic character with the comfort and refinement expected of a modern family home. A cascading driveway sweeps across the Paget hillside and introduces a property of remarkable presence. Deep covered verandahs wrap...
