

Riddell's Bay Cottage 24
 1 Bed House For Sale in Warwick

Description

This building, with high beamed ceilings and contiguous rooms, has seen many changes over the years and most recently served as staff quarters for the former Riddell's Bay Golf and Country Club. The old layout divided the space into a kitchen and dining room, living room, bedroom and bathroom. There is large garage space below for storage which spans the whole building. This cottage is ready for a new renovation and would create a lovely family home in the Riddell's Bay area on just under half an acre with direct access from Riddell's Bay road.
